(c) if not, the reasons therefor; and whether the matter will be taken up with Pakistani Government; and

(d) if so, by when?

THE MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI JASWANT SINGH): (a) As per available information, 788 Indian civilian prisoners are believed to be under detention in Pakistani jails and 55 Pakistani civilians are in custody in India.

(b) to (d) The issue of early release and repatriation of civilian prisoners has, repeatedly and at all levels, been taken up with the Government of Pakistan. The issue was last raised in the Prime Minister's talks with the Pakistan Prime Minister at Lahore on February 21-22, 1999. The two Prime Ministers decided to appoint a two-member committee at Ministerial level to examine issues relating to civilian detainees and missing POWs. Official level discussions are to be held shortly to work out mechanisms for action in accordance with this principle.

Militant activities from Bangladesh, Bhutan and Myanmar

991. SHRI DRUPAD BORGOHAIN: Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) what diplomatic action has been taken by your Government to prevent Bangladesh, Bhutan and Myanmar Territory by the Militants of North-East region; and

(b) what success has been achieved in this field?

THE MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI JASWANT SINGH): (a) and (b) Government has maintained a continuous dialouge through diplomatic channels and institutional mechanisms, with the Governments of Bangladesh, Myanmar and Bhutan for ensuring effective control over militants activities.

Matters relating to terrorism have been discussed with the Government of Bangladesh within the overall framework of discussions on security related issues between the two countries. Bangladesh and India have agreed to work together to counter terrorist activities targeted against the other. This matters has been discussed at various levels including at the Home Secretaries' talks in Dhaka in November 1998 when both sides reconfirmed their resolve not to allow undesirable elements to use their territories for actions prejudicial to the security interests of the other. Both sides agreed to share actionable intelligence towards this end.

India and Myanmar have set up institutional mechanisms for periodic discussions on measures to combat the menace of cross-border insurgency and drug-trafficking. The Government of Myanmar has assured us repeatedly that they will not allow any negative activity on their soil inimical to the national interests of India.

Diplomatic efforts are being made with Bhutan at the highest levels to prevent Bhutanese territory from being used by militants of the North East region. Government has been assured at the highest levels in Bhutan that their territory will not be allowed to be misutilised for activities inimical to India's interests.
